ATTENDS US CONVENTION —
Dr. Hrant Petrosian, director of the Agricultural and Chemical Research Institute of Armenia, attended the Aug. 16-24 international conference on the usage of salt water in Lubbock, Tex. Dr. Petrosian was chosen by the International Agricultural Committee to represent the Soviet Union. Dr. Petrosian, a frequent delegate to international meetings, represented the USSR in Budapest (1964), Yerevan (1969), Spain (1970), and Cairo (1972). In addition to these countries, he has also visited France, United Kingdom, Cuba, and Holland on behalf of his government.
